

MAYPORT SALUTES THE USS STARK'S FALLEN

BOB MACK/The Times-Union

Two USS Stark crew members who served aboard the ship when it was attacked by an Iraqi fighter plane on May 17, 1987, take part in a ceremony at Mayport Naval Station Tuesday to remember the ship's dead. Tim Martineau (left) read Scripture to honor his fallen shipmates and Chief Petty Officer Darryl Allen delivered a tribute to the crew. They are sitting in front of the quarterdeck bell from the Stark that Allen rang as each crew member's name was read. The guided-missile frigate was on patrol in the Persian Gulf when the attack occurred. See METRO • P-4
