

"You will never be forgotten"

Retired Capt. John Mitchell, Jr. who was the Commanding Officer of Naval Station in 1987, speaks of the need to remember those gave their lives in the call of duty.

Naval Station's Honor Detail prepares to give the final round of the gun salute.

Photos by PH3
Catherine Kee

Cmdr. Gerald Seely provided the reflection at the memorial.

William Elliott, Logan Pierce and retired Capt. John Mitchell, Jr. lay the wreath during the USS Stark memorial service at Memorial Park last Thursday. The memorial is held annually to remember the 37 Sailors who were killed on May 17, 1987.