

THE CASUALTIES

Here is a list of crew members killed or missing and presumed dead in the attack on the USS Stark, based on information from the Department of Defense, other U.S. government sources and relatives of the victims.

Killed

Bolduc, Doran Hilaire, seaman, 29, Lacey, Wash.
Brown, Bradley Otis, boatswain's mate, 28, Calera, Ala.
DeAngelis, Christopher Werner, electronics technician, 23, Dumont, N.J.
Dunlap, James Scott, communications specialist, 20, Osceola Mills, Pa.
Farr, Jerry Boyd, radioman, 36, Charleston, S.C.
Foster, Vernon, senior chief petty officer, navigator, 33, Jacksonville.
Grisette, Dexter Dwayne, radioman-seaman's apprentice, 19, Macon, Ga.
Hansen, William Ralph, fire control technician, 22, Reading, Mass.
Homicki, Daniel, gunner's mate, 36, Elizabeth, N.J.
Janusik, Kenneth Dale Jr., operations specialist, 19, Clearwater.
Kendall, Steven Edward, operations specialist, 30, Honolulu, Hawaii.
Kiser, Stephen Greg, electronics mate, 36, Elkhart, Ind.
Lockett, Ronnie George, signalman, 30, Bessemer, Ala.
MacMullen, Thomas Joseph, gunner's mate, 30, Darby, Pa.
Moller, Charles Thomas, electronics warfare specialist, 27, Columbus, Ga.
PHELPS, Jeffrey Lee, seaman recruit, 21, Locust Grove, Va.
Plonsky, James, gunner's mate, 22, Van Nuys, Calif.
Shippee, Robert Laurence, fire control technician, 35, Adams Center, N.Y.
Stephens, Lee, operations specialist, 23, Pemberton, Ohio.
Stevens, James Russell, torpedoman, 27, Visalia, Calif.
Tweedy, Gregory Lee, fire control technician, 36, Champaign, Ill.
Watson, Joseph Pearce, electronics warfare specialist, 25, Ferndale, Mich.
Weaver, Wayne Richard, electronics technician, 22, New Bethlehem, Pa.
Wilson, Lloyd Anthony, fireman apprentice, 24, Summerville, S.C.

Missing, Presumed Dead

Calkins, Jeffrey Lawrence, fire controlman, 20, Richfield Springs, N.Y.
Caouette, Mark Robert, seaman, 26, Fitchburg, Mass.
Cioletta, John Anthony Jr., seaman, 21, Brigantine, N.J.
Clinefelter, Bryan Michael, seaman recruit, 19, San Bernardino, Calif.
Daniels, Antonio Armondo, operations specialist, 21, Greenville, S.C.
Erwin, Steven Thomas, sonar technician, 22, Troy, Mich.
Pierce, Randy Eugene, data systems technician, 28, Choctaw, Okla.
Quick, Kelly Robert, electronics technician, 20, Linden, Mich.
Ryals, Earl Patton, signalman, Boca Raton.
Sibley, Jeffrey Curtis, signalman-seaman's apprentice, 21, Metairie, La.
Supple, Martin, electronics technician, 27, Jacksonville.
Ulmer, Vincent Lenard, seaman, 21, Bay Minette, Ala.
Weldon, Terance Donald, operations specialist, 20, Coram, N.Y.

The Pentagon also identified the two seriously injured crewmen who were transported to the Air Force Regional Medical Center in Wiesbaden, West Germany. The two, both listed in good condition, are:

Bareford, Lawrence Mark, fire control technician, 23, of Spotsylvania, Va., with second-degree burns over 20 percent of his body.

Wheeler, James R., fire control technician, 28, of El Paso, Texas, with second-degree burns over 35 percent of his body.

— Associated Press

Navy officials said yesterday they now think two missiles hit the USS Stark on Sunday night, blowing a large hole in its port side.